16 appeared by video in Yakima with her attorney, Michael Lynch; Assistant United 17 States Attorney Russ Smoot represented the United States and appeared in 18 Spokane.

19 On behalf of Defendant, Pastor Mark Luckie has proffered a letter
20 discussing Defendant's involvement in the Rhema Church. He reports Defendant 21 has been active with the young adult ministry and has organized catering events.
22 She has been a speaker about her faith, attends church in training classes on 23 Sundays. She attends an "apologetics class" Thursday evenings called Firm 24 Persuasion. As described in her grandmother's (Jean Perkins) letter, Defendant
25 appears to have a support system among her family. Defendant allegedly uses 26 marijuana on a daily basis and has not attended substance abuse treatment. It 27 appears Defendant has no criminal history; however, her driving license currently 28

3 message that she and a Co-Defendant were going to kill a confidential informant 4 for throwing away a large shipment of pills.

5 The undersigned is unable to conclude there is a combination of conditions 6 to reasonably assure that Defendant is supervisable and not a risk to the 7 community. Her motion is denied.
